■ Keith Famie's seven-part series, "The Embrace of Aging," begins at 6:30 p.m. Sunday on WTVS-TV (Channel 56) with "A Male Perspective of Growing Old." Famie, a popular local restaurateur and a contestant on the TV hit "Survivor" before becoming a filmmaker, told the Free Press in February that "Embrace of Aging" would be inspirational, moving and entertaining with a variety of people sharing their views on getting older. The 30-minute "Embrace of Aging" documentaries are scheduled to debut on Detroit Public Television at 6:30 p.m. Sundays until Nov. 24, according to DPTV. For more, go to embraceofaging.com/.
